

02/04/18 – Beyond Our Excuses

On Sunday, Rev. Richard told a story of a mountain climber who was asked by Divine Intuition to cut the rope. Metaphorically, where in your life are you being called to cut the rope and what is keeping you from doing so?

What are the excuses you have used to avoid taking the first step on your hero's journey? Are you ready to give them up?

On the other side of your hero's threshold, is the realization of your dream, the answering of your call, and the fulfillment of your vision. Imagining yourself already there, describe the experience for your group.
