

02/18/18 – Beyond Mediocrity and Limitation

“You are the light of the world!” - In this passage and the words that follow it, Jesus is clearly calling us out, and up, to a greater expression of who we are meant to be. How are you currently shining your light and what impact do you see as a result?

What stops you from playing full out and leaving it all on the field?

Beyond the threshold of limitation and fear, is a version of you that is more fully you than anyone has ever realized. Describe without apology, judgment, or reservation that very best version of you!

What is one thing you can do this week to express that heroic version of yourself?
