

03/11/18 – Many Paths

If you were to bow before the God expression of just one person, who would it be and why?

How does the Christ show up wearing your face?

In the past, what are some of the reasons/ways your experience of the Divine has been restricted?

Describe the world you see when all of us transcend these restrictions.