

04/08/18 – Facing the Past

Richard mentioned 3 doors of Forgiveness on Sunday. The first was the door of asking for forgiveness. The second was the door of offering forgiveness to someone in your life. The third was the door of offering forgiveness to someone you have never met but have held in a place of resentment or judgment. Which door is the most relevant to you today, and what are you doing to walk through it?

The members of the “clean-up crew” included kindness, gratitude, humility, vulnerability, responsibility, kindness, and generosity. When considering an area of forgiveness in your life, which one of these ideas needs your greatest attention and why?

In the Gospel of Thomas, Jesus says, “If two make peace with each other in a single house, they will say to the mountain, move from here, and it will move.”

What does the house represent to you? What does the mountain represent to you? What are you doing to bring peace between you and another?
