

10/28/18 – Authentic Action

What is the current relationship in your life between faith and action?

What is the current balance in your life between conscious and unconscious action, and how would you like that to shift?

Share one daily habit you have that can be transformed into a ritual?

On Sunday, Rev. Richard asked us to feel our fear and “cross the metaphorical room” anyway. What is the room you are currently being asked to cross?

What does your life symbolize?
