

3/10/19 - WEEK 5 – COLLECTIVE ETHOS

Choose 2-3

Rev. Richard quoted an anonymous statement on Sunday. "How you do anything is how you do everything." Explore what that means to you and share why you agree or disagree.

How we manage our disagreements will do more to uncover the collective ethos within us than how we manage agreement. How we process difficult people in life will do more to expose our true ethos than how we deal with those that we like. Share your thoughts.

What is keeping you from loving your enemies as your friends as Jesus instructed us to do?

T.S. Eliot wrote, "The general ethos of the people they have to govern determines the behavior of politicians." Considering the current state of politics, how do you process this statement?
